The image of this particular activity by student made us understand how well the student has his/her communication skills on point.

The trainers also made sure that, the students interview skills must be improved by the end of all sessions and without fail, they conducted the Group Discussion (GD) and Mock Interviews as a team and even individually.

This picture shows how the trainer Ms. Archana interviews our beloved student. The points to note is how immense the process were, how well the team organized everything and last but not least, how much interested the student was to attend an interview.
