Address by Mr. Kaleem:

Mr. Kaleem, Placement Officer, CSR Bosch Limited with his humble yet an amazing humor gave a wonderful speech and grabbed the attention of students in a very short span of minutes.

Address by Mr. Ruthuparna Sharma:

He's a man with such an amazing life, meaningful jokes and fantabulous connection with the students who not only laughed and applauded but also connected with him in a very short yet a hustle time.

His way of expressing each and every words made sense and his amazing yet subtle body language got him the attention that he wanted.

He's nicer, intelligent in a good way and words will not be an enough amount on praising him indeed.

Academic Excellence and BCA:

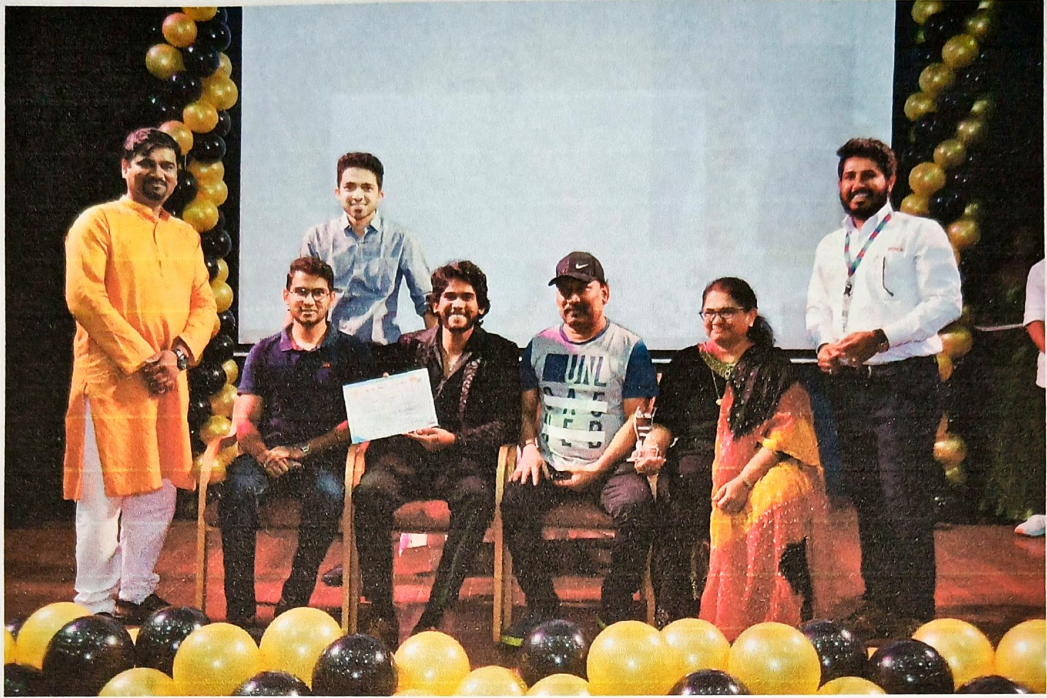

Our student, Navya as a rank holder as well as bagging many trophies back to home, seen as a spotlight in the event.

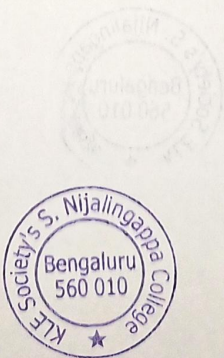

Families are important and their support trade marks childrens effective awards... The image shares everything and the smile reasons enough things.

When academics are important, our KLE BCA allowed sport to be a part of excellence in many possible ways and kindly supported students in varieties of paths. This picture of staff along with the our in sport themselves marks the highlight.

When memories are more important then why not present our dearest with a promising gift that would matter to them lifelong?

This event marked the beginning of many beautiful memories and farewells to many who are waiting ahead. Also this continues and never ends. With a bag full of memories, heart full of sweetness, handful of prizes and what not?
