EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION SKILLS

Department of English organized an IQAC initiated UGC- STRIDE Sponsored Certificate Course on EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION SKILLS spearheaded by Head of the Department, Dr Jayashree.C. Kambar, to prepare students to face the competitive world today with nearly 75 students benefitting from the course .The course commenced with an introduction to it by Dr Jayasree.C. Kambara shedding light on the relevance of learning and teaching and an introduction to the syllabus. This helped the students to understand the importance of what they were about to learn and helped them navigate through the topics. The course commenced on 27.08.2021 to 19.11.2021 Ms Geetha Sathish inaugurated the lecture series with a Shloka and discussed the purpose of learning and teaching through ancient scriptures in Sanskrit.Extensive lectures on Grammar for academic and professional purposes were delivered by renowned resource persons. These include Modal Verbs and Auxillary Verbs & Direct and Reported Speech by Ms Lalitha A.S, Articles and Parts of Speech by MrMathapati. D.S.Since it is an obvious truth that Tenses and the nuances related to their usage is often confusing for students learning English as a second language, separate topics dedicated to the same was the need of the hour handled by Ms Chaithanya E.C. The students benefitted from the explanations and examples discussed during the lesson and helped the ease through the learning process.

Mr Aditya M.L helped familiarize students on how to leave and take messages through telephonic conversations. This helped them understand the etiquettes involved in the same.Letter Writing In English and Kannada were handled by Dr Asha Rabb and Ms Bhuvaneshwari respectively that would benefit the students in both academic and professional facets. Lectures on Presentation Skills and Communication Skills were delivered by Dr Anitha Rao focusing on how to perform well in interviews. Dr Selvappa delivered a lecture on Personality Development through references from Vedic scriptures which are relevant even today. Dr Asha delivered a lecture on Communication Skills in Kannada, giving importance to appropriate communication of ideas in Kannada.Career-oriented topics were also discussed at length on writing Cover Letters by Dr Rekha Koushik and Resume.
