International Mother Language Day 2023

International Mother Language Day was commemorated on 21 February, 2023 in Lecture Hall D-14. Dr. Jayashree C Kambar addressed the gathered students regarding the importance of mother tongue as one of the sources of individual identity. She further added that the proficiency in one's mother language will lead to learn other languages easily. The students interacted and asked many queries regarding the practice of one's mother tongue in the context of increase in the usage of English for the competitive job market. Few students shared their experiences and read out poems, lyrics and passages from the great writers of Kannada, Tamil, Telugu, Malayalam and Hindi languages. There were only 26 beneficiaries from III Year B.Com. Mr. Sandesh welcomed and rendered Vote of Thanks.
