Matte Kalyana

On 7th August 2019, the Department of English KLE S. Nijalingappa College had organized an IQAC interactive workshop on 'Matte' Kalyana' by SahamataVedikeSanehalli, Hosadurga. Matte Kalyana a campaign to revisit and propagate the ideologies of vachanakaras to enhance values in life. The chief guests of the occasion were Dr. Basavaraja Kalagudi a renowned literary critic and the popular Kannada actress Girija Lokesh. The program was presided over by Dr. Arun Kumar S, the principal KLE S Nijalingappa degree college. Dr. Jayashree C. Kambar Head of the department of English was also present on the occasion. The program was anchored by Jagadish Jala a well-known theatre personality and the program in the college was co-ordinated by Jayalakshmi Patil, the theatre artist. While addressing the gathering Dr. Basavaraj Kalgudi told that the system is binding us with the threshold of caste gender and religion. Today's Youth should think the human possibilities which make an individual a universal being. The chief guest of the event Girija Lokesh spoke on moral values and the ability to combat the pressure with patience, a very much need of the hour. The students actively participated and interacted with the dignitaries on the topic. The program was initiated to bring back the richness of Vachana Sahitya and to imbibe among youths the preachings of vachanakaras of 12th century. The speech was followed by an active interactive session with students. Dr. Arun Kumar Principal, S. Nijalingappa College delivered his presidential note. Dr. Jayashree C Kambar, Head of the Department of English concluded the program with a vote of thanks. 180 students of heterogeneous courses were benefitted. The program was graced by the other faculty members too.
