YOUTH RED CROSS WING

ROAD SAFETY WORKSHOP

The Youth Red Cross wing organized a Road safety workshop on 18/11/2021 to give information about importance of Traffic rules and Road safety to youths.

The invited guests were SmtShivarathna, Traffic Police Inspector, Rajajinagar, Bengaluru, ShriShivaramaiah, Traffic police, Assistant sub-inspector, Rajajinagar, Bengaluru and his team including Shri, Muralidhara.C.V, Additional Chief traffic warden, Bangalore city traffic police warden officer, ShriJayanthGarudachar, Senior traffic warden, Bangalore city traffic police warden officer, B.V.Ranganath, Traffic Police warden; Yashwanth, Traffic warden and police constables (Ramanna, Vinayaka, Mahesha).

The traffic warden JayanthGarudachar addressed the students about road safety by following traffic rules. Sir addressed to gathering about the traffic rules for their safety, importance of helmet, seat belt and curb drill following while crossing the road, Zebra crossing, speed maintenance in different zones and about road signs, traffic signals, and importance of driving license, emission test and insurance. He addressed about humanity towards pedestrians and injured people during accident by hospitalizing them. Sir explained effectively with live examples. He shared knowledge and gave importance about the new technologies adopted to record the traffic violations.

We can reduce the road accidents by adopting all the traffic rules and road safety measures.

Beneficiaries: 116 B.Sc students and 20 staffs of our college.

Event Outcome:

- Raising the Public awareness about basic information of Road safety measures.
- Maintenance of traffic by following rules and learnt about various mandatory, cautionary and informative signs.
- Helping old aged and disabled people to cross the road in Zebra cross
