Swami Vivekananda's Three Mantras in: Concentration, Confidence and Character

Swami Vireshananda spoke about Swami Vivekananda's three mantras: concentration, self-confidence and character in the collaboration and expressed infinite thanks to Mr. Swami Vivekananda who showed the importance of Vivekananda in a very young age, who shone brightly in a short period of time. Later, when Vivelananda asked Ramakrishna Paramahansa whether he would come to see God, as a devotee of Paramahansa, he actively toured the entire country and participated in the Chicago conference in America. What is the country to you? Remembering the words of John F. Kennedy that what you have done for the country is more important than what you have done, Swami Vireshananda said that today's youth should create the ideal morality of truth and sacrifice like Vivekananda. Swami Vireshananda informed the students that concentration, confidence and character should be inculcated in the youth. Bhagyashree second BSc student started the program by singing Ganesha Stuti. The welcome and introduction of the guests was done by Mohan M. The felicitation was done by Venkatesh TK. The program was conducted by Mrs. Bhuvaneshwari.
